Administrative Information

Biographical Sketch Irving I. Hausman was born in Staviski, Poland in 1910. At age seven, he immigrated to the United States. After receiving a B.A. from Western Reserve University, Hausman was ordained by Hebrew Union College in 1940. He served pulpits in Steubenville, Ohio; Portland, Oregon; Sacramento, California; and San Francisco, California. He died in 1986.

Hausman was committed to making this world a better place for all peoples. He served as Chairman of Sacramento's Mayor's Citizens Committee on Juvenile Delinquency from 1951-1959 and as Chaplain of the California State Legislature from 1952-1953. He also helped to found the United Crusade Family Service Agency. Hausman also served on the Board of the Red Cross, Heart Association, World Affairs Council, and the Religious Advisory Committee of the California State Department of Corrections. He also frequently appeared on Sacramento's weekly interfaith television program.
